

Do you Want Freedom, Clarity and Consciousness in your life? If you answered yes, take this Enlightenment Intensive, and Experience who You Really Are at your Deepest Core.

What are Enlightenment Intensives? They are a spiritual practice for persons of any faith, and they don't require a guru. Enlightenment Intensives historically have produced a great amount of personal breakthroughs, a better ability to relate to self and others, and most importantly Enlightenment Experiences.

Why Attend and What will I gain? The foremost reason is to attain an "Enlightenment Experience," also known as satori, "contact with God," or Union with Truth. While not everyone has this experience in an Enlightenment Intensive, nearly everyone gains incredible self discovery and insight. Enlightenment looks different for each person. People who attend Enlightenment Intensives have described experiencing:

- Greater clarity and excitement about their life; not just mental clarity, but the ability to put life into action with much more ease and consistency
- Deeper, closer connection with others
- A clear path to truth and how to live in alignment with their core self daily
- Purification and an opportunity to explore the nature of reality
- Greater self-confidence and authenticity of self
- A renewed passion for life and an awareness of being fully alive
- Compassionate listening and communication, in which they can articulate their own truth and hear that of another
- Release from egoistic, mental burdens of the past, and opening of a light and clear heart
- Deeper trust in their own intuition and life path
